PLACES ON THIS TRIP

- Bhimakali Temple: The temple in Sarahan is devoted to Goddess Bhimakali. It is believed to be about 800 years old and mixes Hindu and Buddhist styles.
- Jeori hot springs: The hot springs are near Shrikhand Mahadev peak, on the road from Sarahan to Sangla.
- Kamru Fort: The fort is in Sangla. Its temple is dedicated to Goddess Kamakhya.
- Chitkul: Chitkul is a village in the Baspa River Valley. The valley has meadows, apple orchards and snow mountains.
- Roghi village: Roghi is a village near Kalpa with old traditional houses and apple orchards. It has a view of the Kinnaur Kailash range.
- Nako Lake: Nako Lake is a high-altitude lake in Nako village, in the Pooh sub-division of Kinnaur district.
- Gue Monastery: Gue Monastery keeps the mummy of Sangha Tenzin, a Buddhist monk. The mummy is about 500 years old.
- Dhankar Monastery: The monastery is on a hill above the meeting point of the Pin and Spiti rivers. It is said to be about 1200 years old.
- Mudh: Mudh is the last village in the Pin Valley that a vehicle can reach.
- Komik: Komik is a village at a height of 4513 metres. Snow cuts it off for most of the year.
- Hikkim: Hikkim is a village near Kaza. Its post office is described as the highest in the world.
- Langza: Langza is a village near Kaza. It has the Lang Temple, which is about 1000 years old.
- Key Monastery: Key Monastery sits in a bowl-shaped valley near Kaza.
- Chicham Bridge: Chicham Bridge is a suspension bridge at about 4037 metres. It crosses a gorge between Chicham and Kibber villages.
- Kunzum Pass: Kunzum Pass is at about 4551 metres, between the Spiti and Lahaul valleys. The Kunzum Mata Temple is at the top.
- Chandratal Lake: Chandratal is also called Moon Lake because of its crescent shape. It is a high-altitude lake in Lahaul.
